

About Allies

Contributed by Administrator
Saturday, 02 September 2006
Last Updated Friday, 01 December 2006

Allies Inc. is a private not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization incorporated on October 1, 2003 in the state of Maine with the merging of BDL Inc. and REEP Inc. Allies Inc. serves people with physical and mental disabilities that have problems holding jobs and participating in community life.

Allies Inc. provides job development and support services to individuals with disabilities and welfare recipients, and is licensed by the state of Maine to provide case management and therapy services to individuals with major mental illnesses.

ALLIES Inc. works in close partnership with area employers as well as with its funding agencies, which includes the Maine Department of Behavioral and Developmental Services, Health and Human Services, Department of Labor, Maine Care, Medicare and the U.S. Department of Education.